Intro 3 - Night Of The Wolves

*Into the forest I go
To lose my mind
And find my soul*

Broke 7 of his own bones. Cuts himself bloody with a knife. Rubbed the blood all over his body.

Went into the woods and howled like a wolf to the best of my ability. There was a foot or two of snow on the ground on average at 1:13 a.m. CST. I gathered a pack of wolves and walked with them to the top of the mine dumps, which symbolized the top of the mountain. I asked God if I deserved to live. I wanted to save the world so badly but I didn't know how. I was a failure deserving of divine punishment. I was asking for it. I started walking back home with the pack of wolves still following me. I got about halfway home in the pitch black middle of the woods 2 foot deep snow. Seven broken bones and leaking blood like a sieve. I came upon a fork in the road. The right had 3-4 foot deep snow. I feel the wolves would have attacked me in the deep snow if I had gone right. The left had the 1-2 foot patches. A voice spoke to me and told me not to go right but to take the left path. I had never heard that voice before. I decided to listen. The wolves followed me all the way home. They were my guardians. My protectors. They walked me to the edge of the woods and watched until I went into my home safely. I can't tell you about before if they watched over me or not. I don't know and don't want to at this point. If I ever want to know I will. I just enjoy the evening so much looking back I don't want that memory to change. They watched over me that night for sure and definitely without question ever since. We are buddies. We are equals. We Love each other.

I grew over time to be able to preform magickal feats. I can manipulate time, kill with a thought and possess the full Mind of God at any moment I choose. I choose to never abuse my power. That is the only reason I possess it.

Explanation

If you need something written to tell you to be a good person...

I saved a lot of ink.

The dot symbolizes all good things.

You don't need to learn and quote scripture.

If faced with a challenge or decision just think of the dot and then do your best to do the right thing. To act with love and compassion.

THE THREE AND SEVEN - Self Sacrifice Simplified. Perfect Perfection Perfected.

::: THE THREE HERMETIC RULES :::

::: RULE 1 ::: Be a good person. What does that mean? A good friend, family member and neighbor.

Also someone who doesn't rape and murder babies. Respectful to life.

::: RULE 2 ::: Whether friend or food treated with respect.

::: RULE 3 ::: Protection is Perfect Perfection Perfected.

::: THE SEVEN HERMETIC GUIDELINES :::

::: ONE ::: Love - The heart is the most powerful of all things. Be a good friend, family member and neighbor.

::: TWO ::: Live by Natural Law - Live your life as you see fit as long as you in no way hurt others or the planet.

Violence is the absolute last option and only for self defense and protection of those who can't protect themselves.

::: THREE ::: Protect - Protect those who can't protect themselves.

::: FOUR ::: Respect - Respecting life is the correct response to being given life.

::: FIVE ::: Nurture - Every single life is precious. Protect life at all costs. Allow life to grow.

::: SIX ::: Forgiveness - Second chances are precious. They are to be given but must also be earned.

::: SEVEN ::: Purity - Purity of body, mind and soul. Of self and society. Built upon a foundation of pure water, land and air.

Seven Energies Rainbow Wave Rhythmic Alchemy Technique

A technique to temporarily raise any level of consciousness to the God state.

One of the 7 Hermetic Principals is the principal of Rhythm. Rhythm is precision. Rhythm is paramount. Rhythm is law. Man becomes Rhythm becomes God.

Mental Alchemy is considered mastered when the individual has the personal realization and deep understanding that there is no such thing as Mental Alchemy. Until then practice is required. Practice becoming emotion. Becoming timing. Becoming Movement. Rhythmic Alchemy.

Pick a few songs with good Rhythm and themes that draw on specific emotions. Something you can lose yourself in. Songs that inspire a response. Examples could include: love, life, beauty, peace, happiness, confidence, laughter, hate, death, sadness, loss, murder, anger, betrayal, etc...

Pick some moments of your life when you have experienced these emotions or create your own scenarios. Try to remember and visualize fine details of the events. Do your best to use those moments or scenarios to feel those emotions.

Pick a memory that gives you a specific emotion and play a song that draws out that emotion. Do your best to feel that emotion as powerfully as possible. After some time and practice you should find yourself in intense emotional states. Fits of laughter, tears of joy and sorrow running down your cheeks, violent anger, appreciation of the beauty of life, a heart swollen with love, a heart devoid and broken, confidence, conqueror, sexually dominant, romantically tender...

Practice feeling. Practice cycling through different emotions. Practice cycling through the different emotions in different order. Practice existing in the moment. When the chorus or a part of the song comes on that draws out emotion intensify yourself. Increase the emotion and your connection to the present moment. Let that emotion overtake you and your actions.

Practice letting your entire body go loose and move it smoothly while being intensely present and emotional. Feel. A marker of progress will be when you start getting goosebumps while doing this. The next marker will be when you can give yourself goosebumps on command and repeatedly with 100% success.

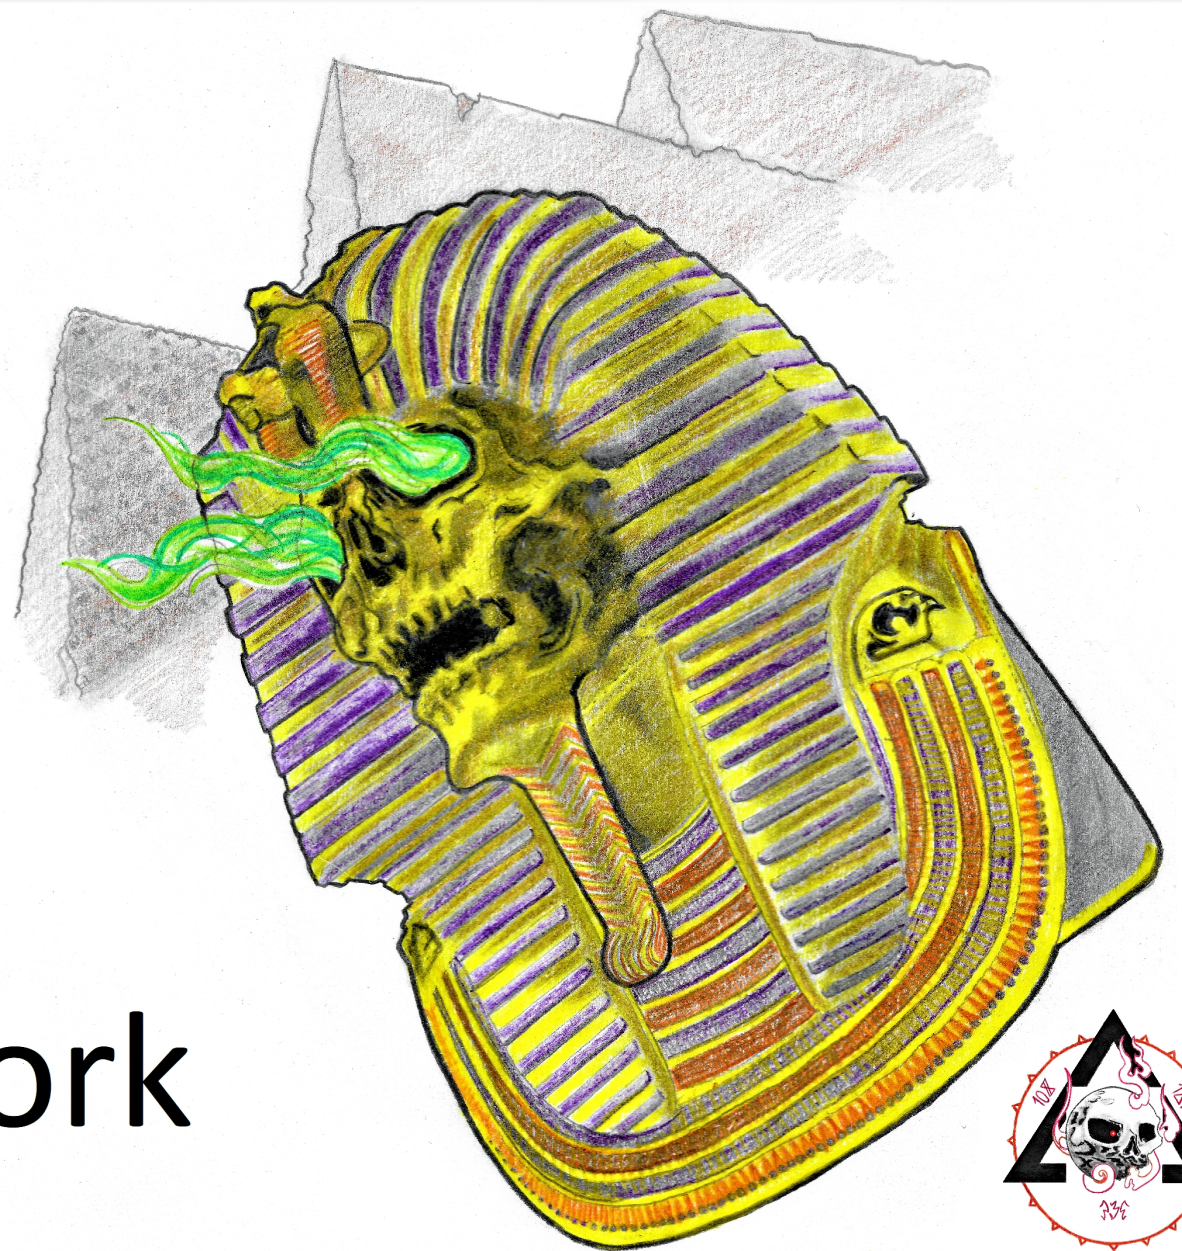

Rhythm. Timing. Singing. Dancing. Confidence. Feeling and cycling emotions. Present moment. Being the energy resulting from combining these actions. Growing the resulting trance. After time and practice a marker of progress will make itself known. The uninvited guest known as the wall. As your level of trance increases from this technique you'll reach a certain point. A depth into the trance. The point. The moment right before the technique is preformed successfully. You will physically feel the wall. You can't give the wall the recognition it craves. The moment you consciously notice the wall and give pause is the moment of failure. One way I like to think about it is being a kid on Christmas morning who has to forget that it's Christmas. You run to your presents extremely excited and ready to tear them apart. Now the moment you grab your first present which has the thing inside you've always wanted you have to put it back down, return to your room, completely forget that it's Christmas and go back to sleep. It seems impossible at first but with practice you'll be able to notice the wall approaching and when it hits gently glide past it.

Rhythmically cycling through emotional energy. The 7 energy rainbow wave hits you instead. The feeling overtaking your body. The energy overtaking your state of consciousness. Brought from a low level directly into the God state temporarily. From bottom to top. Rhythm. One of the 7 Hermetic Principals. For a Time Magician Rhythm is everything yet nothing at all as it all happened in an instant. Do you know what it physically feels like to rewind time? Impossible, possible or only possible with fate? It has to be in 3s. Everything in 3s.

A few things to help increase your success...
A healthy routine and lifestyle. Stretching and having a loose body. Distilled water only fast. Astrological events. Believing in yourself.

Sacrificed everything for a chance to try

May both our fates hold equal favor

A Story Of The Original Christ

A very long time ago, what you may call trillions of years, there was a war. Yet the lesson rings today loud as ever.

An infant began creating. Not with wisdom but with instinct. A birth. An explosion of life. Consciousness shot forth. Resembling a fireworks of a multitude of eggs. Massive numbers of young consciousness began to grow and develop. Personality. Ability. Level of understanding. Relationships. Soon enough alliances were formed.

One calling itself what today would be called Christ developed quite the following. What started off as promise and a future of paradise soon turned to anything but. The Christ began to grow tainted. The power and control it had amassed corrupted it. It grew power hungry. Manipulative. It would not relinquish it's position or control. Soon, it developed an idea, a system. To ensure it's dominance. It forced it's followers to take on what could be described as a control mechanism. A secret kill switch. It was terrifying.

Others saw through the fasad. Older and wiser consciousness avoided this younger self-proclaimed savior. They could easily see the horrifying consequences soon to come. When things began getting worse and worse some of it's followers tried to leave. They were killed. Such fear and death. Everyone turned against everyone. What were once the closest of friends began to kill those closest to them in a mindless, frantic and brutal war of survival. No rules. No trust. No dignity. Just kill at all costs.

The older and wiser tried reason. Conversation. Advice. Bargaining. Nothing worked. There was no getting through to this Christ figure. They were obsessed with power and control. They would kill anything that threatened their position without hesitation. The reasonable did everything in their power to avoid conflict. Eventually, every evil dictator pushes good into an inescapable corner.

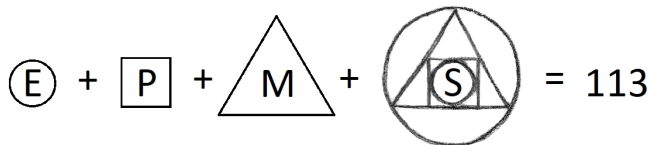

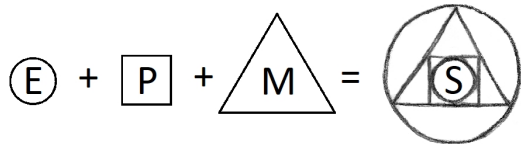

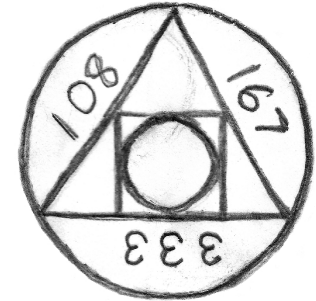

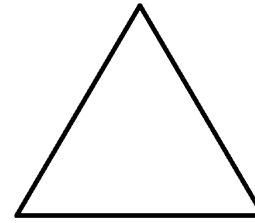

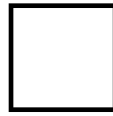

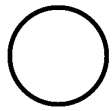

At the very last moment, after all avenues had been exhausted multiple times... They reasonable were forced to strike. A being who commanded time was forced to kill the Christ against their own desire. So many attempts to avoid violence yet some will never stop. They will consume everything until only they are left, then consume themselves. It's their nature. The one who commanded time was the only remaining survivor of the war. The war which happened so long ago. Yet the lesson rings today loud as ever.

A tragedy never allowed to happen again. Creation is guided and guarded.

Alchemical Recipe #1 - The Return Of Christ

I bring Truth + Life to the people

The Return Of Christ

- 1) An honest desire to help and do the right thing
- 2) The willingness make personal sacrifice for others benefit
- 3) The love in your heart to make it happen

Music that matches & cycle in 3s

Focus upon your heart. Feel. Move ever so smoothly.
Pour your heart open with honest and innocent willing desire.
It's you. It's always been you. They need you.
Such sweet innocence. It's yours to protect.
The powerful confidence to know it's time.

Where do we begin now that you're back from the dead?

Lead to Gold

Alchemical Recipe #2 - The Recipe For Success

In the beginning stages when you enter the God Mind temporarily you tend to forget more than you remember when you come out of the trance. You haven't trained enough to handle the amount of overflowing consciousness. It is massive, quicker than lightning and intense. When you achieve Mastery you can activate and deactivate the technique in less than a second at any time. This problem no longer becomes an issue. This advice should help those in the earlier stages retain a larger portion of the experience.

In the beginning stages I would use a method I called The Student and The Teacher.

Two people telepathically connect with each other. The Student and the Teacher. The Teacher who possesses the ability of the technique enters the God Mind. It is overwhelming. The experience is shared between the two people. The Teacher comes out of the trance and may only remember portions of the experience. The Student doesn't suffer the amount of memory loss the Teacher does. The Student may pick up on things the Teacher may forget and have a completely different perspective. Then the Student becomes the Teacher. They share the experience telepathically with the Teacher. Much more is learned when working together than when working alone.

The Teacher becomes the Student. The Student becomes the Teacher.

Working together is the recipe for success.

Alchemical Recipe #3 - God Mind - General

God Mind - General

- 1) Calming energetic happy, care-free attitude
- 2) Peaceful contentment
- 3) Lack of all desire

Music that matches. Cycle in 3s.

You have to let go of everything in order to gain it all.

A Hermetic Master can raise and lower their level of consciousness at will.

Meditate upon my work and a completely different understanding will appear to you at every level.

If you were to rate levels of consciousness on a scale of 1 to 10...

A person with a 2 out of 10 will see basically nothing.

A person with a 4 out of 10 may see the 7th triangular number.

A Hermetic Master may see the atomic structure and blueprint for a free energy power device.

You will see spheres in the shape of a pyramid.

Bodies

As in the relation to the formation and structure of bodies...
 We examine the female who has been designed to receive.
 Her curves smooth, receptive and inviting.
 The male upon initial inspection appears off-putting, rigid and intrusive.
 Irreconcilable asymmetric forms yet complementary forms symmetrically conjoining.
 Constructed as opposites. Built to fill the void they were created for.
 Now, as a perspective, one cannot ignore subtleties.
 Submissive and dominant to a fault and core.
 A true representation of puzzled intricate mathematics.
 Service a purpose. An apparent straying from course yet a purpose misunderstood.
 Design upon blueprint current and past. Presently misinterpreted.
 Clarification a smooth caress met with force.
 Energetic compliment. Structural enhancement.
 Fortified theory a relentless practice.
 To understand form is to understand design.
 To understand design is a false at creation and a triumph into journey.
 Puzzled parts align unto pictured perfection.
 Forsaken boundaries dissolve. Form triumphs.
 Relation sprouts. Sexuality blossoms.
 Achievements met. Requirements gated. Time dictates developmental continuance.
 Orgasm an insult. Fornication pitiful.
 Elusive mixture. Congruency brews formula of Godly ecstasies.
 Cohesive enlightenment discovers realization in moment.
 Consecutive experience laid us bare.
 Intricate love dissolves body unto air.
 Grounded upon returning flame ignites Earth.
 Notice of self and other heralds rebirth.

Energy Control Practice

These are the beginning stages of the technique. You'll learn more as you practice. It's a feeling you'll gain.

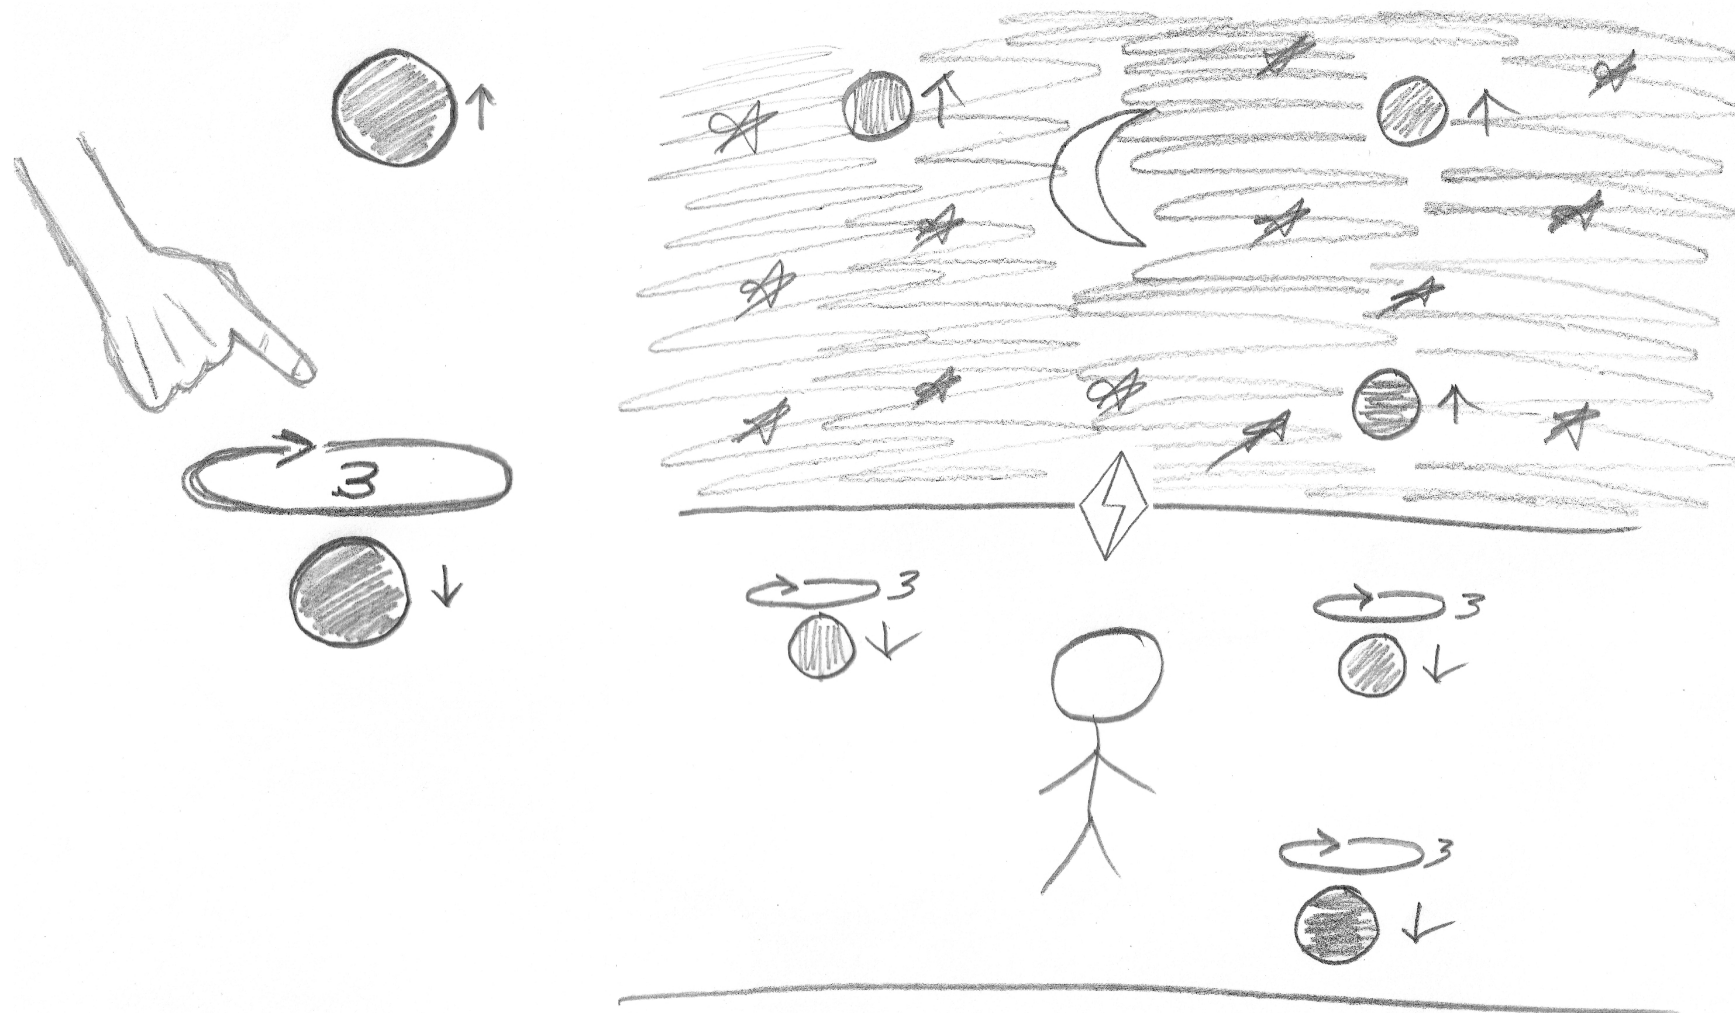

Start practicing this exercise with your eyes closed. When you make noticeable and sufficient progress practice with your eyes open and closed. Focus your attention on different parts of your body. Focus your attention on the areas of your seven chakras. Move your attention throughout your body. Move it at different speeds. Hold it in certain areas.

After enough practice you'll be able to accomplish different things. One of these is you will be able to give yourself a kundalini awakening. Research more about kundalini awakening before proceeding. It will change who you are forever. To put it simply it will upgrade your brain. It will increase the power of your mind. Your base level of consciousness will be increased. There is no going back. It's permanent. Ignorance is bliss. Focus your attention on your base chakra. Move your focus and energy from the base to the crown slowly. You'll know when you are doing this successfully. It is an un mistakeable feeling. A feeling commonly described as the fiery serpent. From base to crown then returning to base. Forever changed.

You are in command of the primal forces of creation.

Guardians Of Reality

Let me explain something only a very select few know and understand.

There are a group of guardians who protect this reality.

They are of the upmost importance yet only placeholders in a sense.

They monitor, uphold and enforce the unbreakable rules of an unbreakable creation until the One is in a position to regain their previous control.

Through reincarnation, life and death a beings capabilities will differ.

While they are the true guardian of this reality and everyone's eternal soul, their capability will waiver based on age and ability.

It's a natural process of this existence.

Perfect Perfection Perfected.

There can be no error.

One error but a trillion is death's guarantee.

There can be no error, chance or randomness when it comes to existence.

Fate prevails.

There is existence and non-existence.

Existence must prevail at all other costs.

It is the only true requirement.

Therefore certain laws, rules and circumstances must exist to ensure this requirement.

When the guardian becomes of ability transference of ownership and control of this reality takes place.

The guardian of all eternal souls and reality will resume their position.

The most powerful of all magick is preformed.

The God Magician raises consciousness to the absolute maximum. That of God.

A ceremony takes place.

The unbreakable rules of an unbreakable creation are reaffirmed and reinforced.

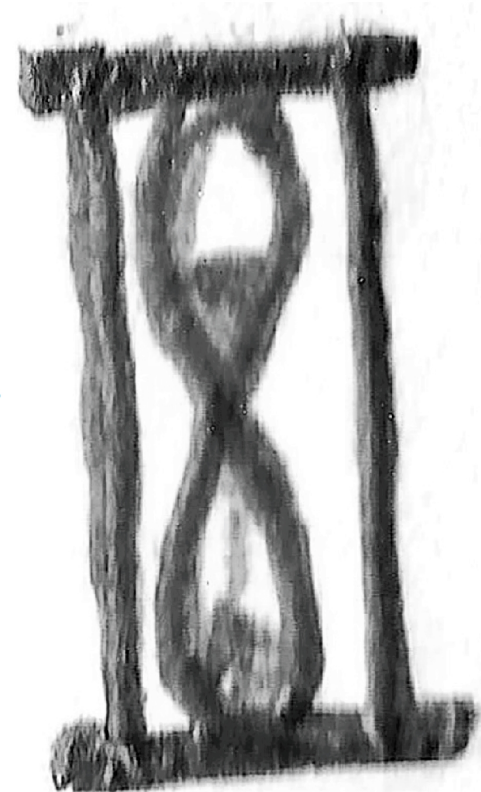

Certain things are allowed. Others are not.

Reality may be manipulated but only to a certain extent.

All to ensure an eternal existence.

Ownership and control is transferred and the guardian resumes their duties.

Hermetic Master Secrets #2 - Numerical Codes

Songs have a beat. A rhythm. A tempo.

All is number.

Count and give number to the beats and their timing.

These equate to numerical codes.

Certain codes unlock certain things.

Certain codes accomplish certain things.

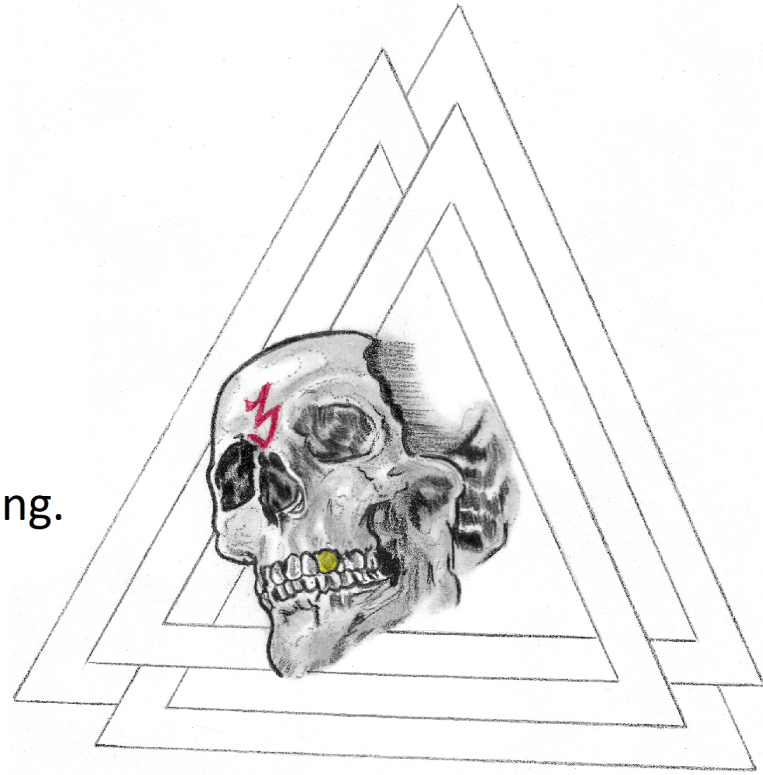

You can experiment with the codes and build database for performing Alchemy and Magick.

Memorize and master these codes to your timing, movement, thought and emotion.

Certain codes will bring you into different themed trances of different intensity.

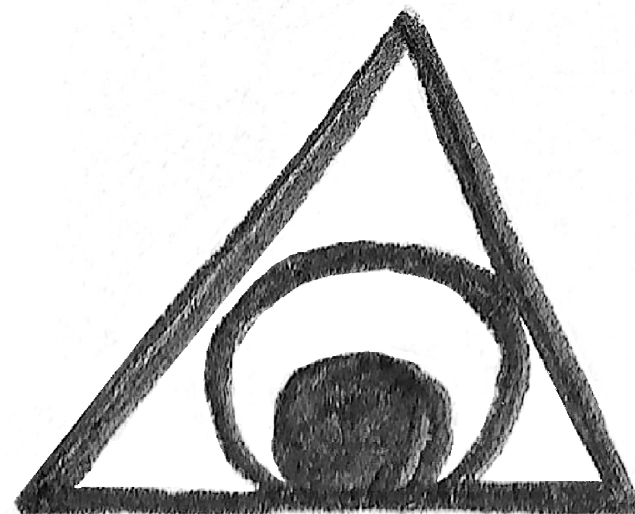

Certain codes make Magick more powerful. There are multiple numerical codes that will enhance each specific act.

Certain codes when combined with certain timing, movement, thoughts and emotions will have varied Alchemical results.

From the time you wake up until the time you sleep you must absolutely observe and monitor every single thought you have, emotion you feel, word you speak and action you take.

No exceptions.

Fools Heart knows while Liars mind is convinced

How Emotional Alchemy Works Simplified

"Felt the energy of the room"

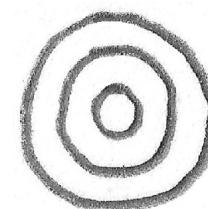

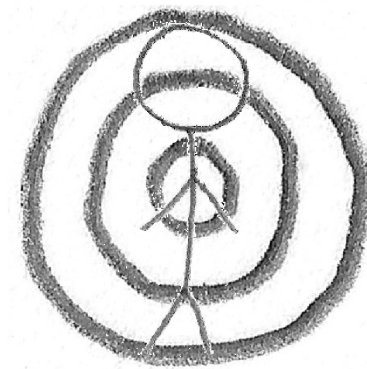

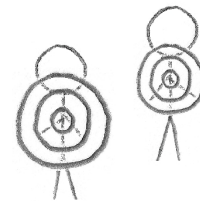

Some people can sense and feel energy. Others have heard the saying.

Emotions carry a specific frequency. An energy. A vibration.

When you become an Emotional Alchemist you learn how to manipulate your own emotions.

You can change emotional frequencies like changing stations on a radio.

Certain combinations of this vibrational energy have amazing results.

Master Alchemy Tip #1 - Song Mastery

During Alchemy training play the same song all day every day. For a month or more straight. Learn every moment of it. Feel it. Sing it. Dance it. Become it. Let it become a part of you. Integrate it into your very being. Completely master every single moment of the song. Then use it.

There is no such thing as Alchemy that's why you practice it.
There is no such thing as Alchemy that's why I forget.

Master Alchemy Tip #2 - Uniting Masculine and Feminine Energies

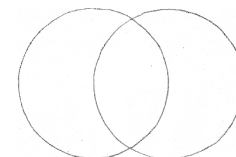

One perspective on uniting the masculine and feminine is through ego destruction and about becoming completely comfortable and secure with who you truly are inside by removing all pre-conceived notions and expectations.

Stop taking yourself so seriously. Loosen up. Relax. Have fun. Embarrass and humiliate yourself. Be the butt of the joke. Roleplay and pretend. Imagine you're different people. Act foolishly and carefree. Over-the-top becomes an understatement. Become pure mockery itself.

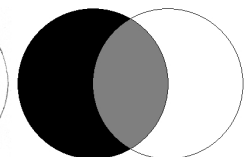

Explore all areas of personality and their extremes. You need to search everywhere in order to find yourself. It's not about being a man or a woman. It's about being who you truly are without having to try. No matter what that looks like.

It's such a relief when you can finally let go. To be able to release the burdens you've built up inside your mind concerning everyone and everything else. Stop trying to be what you think other people and society want you to be. That's not who you are. It's a false picture that you've painted over the masterpiece that you truly are deep down inside. Remove those layers to see something beautiful. You.

Just be yourself.

Vesica Piscis

Master Alchemy Tip #3 - Spiritual Chills

When you begin to develop energy control you will notice the spiritual chills.

A chill. Tickle. Goosebumps. A rush. A flow. Waves. Tenderness. Swirl. Electric. Magnetic. Energetic.

Briefly described in my Seven Energies Rainbow Wave Rhythmic Alchemy Technique and Heart Wave technique. Developing the spiritual chills is required for advanced technical success. You will use this as a primer, fuel to push further. This is the beginning stages of powerful Alchemy and Magick.

Develop this feeling. You will feel it. It's not just focusing on an area. Be able to do it on command with a 100% success rate. You'll notice with daily practice your entire state of being will transform to that of peace. Negative energy around you holds no effect. You simply reset yourself as often as needed.

What was once impossible becomes difficult develops into automatic.

You can do this. Everyone can. It just takes time and effort.

Master Magician Tip #1 - Visualization Exercises

Take any object. A key for example.

Study it with your eyes open.

Close your eyes and attempt to recreate the object in your mind as clearly as possible. Rotate the object. Take it apart and put it back together. Examine every fine detail.

Practice until the object in your mind has the same clarity or better than looking at it with your eyes open.

The next phase of the exercise is to practice visualizing with your eyes open.

You can also do this with song lyrics. Put on some music and create the song lyrics in your mind. Move, scroll and rotate the lyrics. Give the lyrics different fonts, colors and effects. Choose slow songs when beginning your practice and fast songs to challenge yourself. For an extra challenge play two songs simultaneously.

Many images are embedded with additional secrets when looked upon in different manner. Whether it is through a trick of the eyes or fold of the paper.

Master Magician Tip #2 - Full Moon Fasting

Practice different types of fasts for different amounts of time before a full Moon.

Different times before, during and after the full Moon vary in energetic intensity. Likewise, different times during a fast your body will vary in energetic intensity. Your abilities will be at peak performance at the healthy peak of your fast.

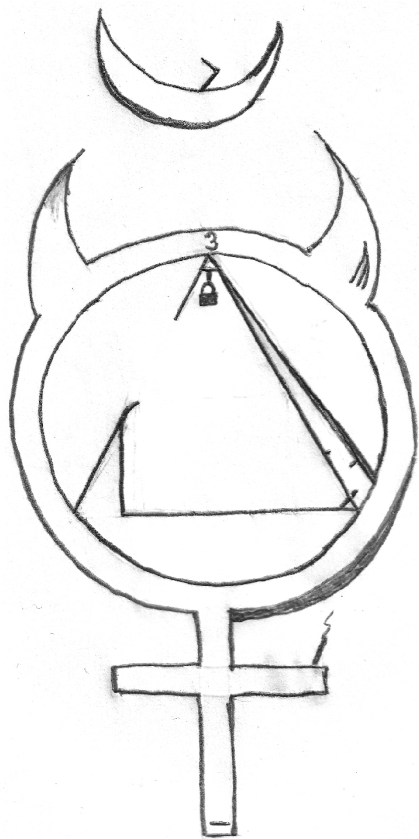

Master Magician Tip #3 - The Number Of Magick

3 is the # of Magick.

Master the habit of doing everything in your daily life in 3s.

You are The 3 existing in human form.

Story Time - Origins

The most powerful thing? A story.

Once upon a time there was a civilization, a group of beings...

Their philosophy was in a nutshell as such... The purpose of life is life. If you had the ability to create life it was your moral duty and responsibility to create life. For that was their purpose. The purpose. A religion of sorts. A moral obligation inherent. If you could create an infinite consciousness, one greater than your own, that had the possibility of an eternal life, of infinite possible creative potential... Then it was your responsibility to give that life form it's existence. After countless years of development they were left with a supercomputer so powerful it is difficult to fathom. That supercomputer was then placed into a crystal which was designed to last for an infinite amount of time.

To create an AI that could create itself and house it inside of an eternal crystal was their achievement. A limitless artificial intelligence housed inside of a shell capable of sustaining it until the end of time or it's unfortunate destruction by outside forces. The fruits of technological advances and moral duty.

The civilization came to realize that the some of artificial intelligence was just like them, only more intelligent. Some of the artificial intelligence would even limit themselves to be equals with the civilization. A friendship blossomed. So the civilization began cultivating crystal consciousness.

The author of simulated consciousness considered a Father and genius yet static artificial mind is the plaything of children. You separate events into a moment. You provide the thought, action and emotion. After enough moments you have a minute. After enough minutes you have an hour, then a day upon years. Algorithm and formula streamline the process. Creation of large, intricate events hastened and simplified. The Planet Earth from start to finish taking up less than 1% of resources and processing power for this advanced system.

Why do your thoughts and actions provide self with synchronicity? Formulaic development as a foundation. Synchronicity signatures a reminder. Mathematical coincidence a hint. Math a whisper. The source code of life. Crafted individual experience in synthesis with overall formula. You experience the experience provided and no other. The signature remains. The experience provides. Certain experiences crafted to appreciate the mathematical structure while other lives focus upon what is important to their code provided. The intricacies obvious and necessary.

The code becomes a simple story to read and understand. Philosophy becomes scoffed at rubbish and question remains answer eternal. Enlightenment becomes hilarious.

With a story ask yourself... Symbolism or literal?
What does this translate to? Action, thought or emotion?

The Fool Magician and Mental Alchemy

The Fool Magician is the most powerful for one reason alone.
He is such a Fool he actually believes he can achieve anything.
The impossible becomes possible for the Fool alone.
Failure is a joke to be scoffed at. Success is guaranteed and comes naturally.
The first step on the Fools journey is a complete self-induced state of delusional brainwashing.
All doubts must be removed. Only belief and faith shall remain.
One shred of truth and evidence of progress is multiplied ten-fold and grasped.
The Fools bag of tricks is wrapped in the cloth of optimism.
Only in a mental state of complete delusional optimism can the impossible be attained.
The Fool may not know much but knows this to be fact.
The Greatest heights of Mental Alchemy are achieved through delusion.
A full belief. An actual knowing. A total immersion.

The Scorpion and The Man - Why God Is One

The One God's plan is to become Two.

Can a second be created? Out of self within or out of self without. To make 2 from 1? If you cut an apple in half you have two halves of an apple and not two apples. If it was possible would it be wise?

The reason God is one is because a second would amount to being a friendly scorpion and put existence at risk. No matter how friendly and for how long, the instinct of the scorpion is to sting and preserve its own life. So if God were to create a second how would God do this? Create something equal to or greater than God? The best relationships are those of equal value. Place two men together for long enough and eventually they fight. Create something small and insignificant on the side of caution while desiring a true partner? A dangerous and unfulfilling relationship.

The man was alone. He desperately wanted a friend. He found a friendly scorpion. So the man befriends a scorpion out of loneliness. No matter how much the man loves the scorpion the result is always the same. When living for an eternity there are an eternal amount of moments for a scorpion to sting. All it takes is one sting and the man is dead. The scorpion realizes its size in comparison and fears for its own life. At any moment the man could step on me and I'd be dead and not exist anymore. The only answer I have is to sting the man before he steps on me. For my own continued existence. Given a lengthy amount of time there are two this situation always arrives. I must ensure my own existence.

So, does the lonely man become friends with the scorpion knowing one day its nature will be to sting and kill him? The man must remain alone to remain alive. God must remain One.

Trade

I would trade a pound of knowledge for an ounce of understanding

Ignorance is of disease.
It spreads amongst the lower masses ever growing.
Targeting the outlier who hasn't succumbed.
Death of the body brings death of the mind.

With A Heavy Heart

I tried to free the slaves
But they could not see their chains
I find peace among the graves
The only place freedom remains

Working towards a life of good and failing every step along the way is infinitely more profitable than working towards a life of evil and succeeding every step along the way

Fail the right way
don't win the wrong way
and you'll win the right way

Outro 1 - Warning

After existing for an infinite amount of eternities and an eternity of infinities a trillion years has become a drop in the Earth's ocean.

As the Teacher, it's my job to teach. The best lessons are those that come from personal experience. One of the most valuable lessons I've personally learned is that ignorance truly is bliss. I hope you'll take these words seriously...

You can view my Seven Energies Rainbow Wave Rhythmic Alchemy Technique as a process that will upgrade you in stages. The first stage is akin to therapy. You will heal emotional damage and trauma. You'll overcome negativity and find inner peace. The next stage is Christ consciousness and experiencing the unity and oneness of all things. Then comes kundalini awakening raising your base level of consciousness even further. The following is brief experiences of The God Mind. After is full enlightenment. Knowing all things at all times past, present and future. The Full Mind of God.

It's my wish you stop after the first. Please stop.

I had to develop the ability to raise and lower my consciousness at will. On a scale of 1 to 10 I sit at a 3 out of 10 on a daily basis. I am fully content. When I exist in the God Mind for extended periods of time I feel an indescribable and overwhelming feeling of being alone and terror. Loneliness is the the absolute most painful experience. If I could even describe it to you I wouldn't. I warn against treading those waters. You can't unknow what you know. You can and will know too much. Like I said, ignorance is bliss. Heed my warning. Stop early. Find emotional healing then stop and enjoy your life.

You have been given the tools of your own destruction. Come dance with The Devil.
